

JOB OPPORTUNITY

RESEARCH ASSISTANTS NEEDED

We are hiring Research Assistants for a study that examines the public's thoughts and opinions about marijuana. The study involves an online survey completed by participants aged 16 and over living in Northwest Territories, Yukon, and Nunavut. The Research Assistants will be responsible for recruiting study participants. The study is being led by Erin Hobin at Public Health Ontario and David Hammond at the University of Waterloo.

Title: Research Assistant

Locations:

- Yellowknife
- Inuvik
- Hay River

Responsibilities include:

- Recruiting study participants e.g., distributing recruitment materials at designated locations within the community, such as grocery stores, community centres
- Traveling locally within community to designated locations
- Interacting with the public and answering questions about the study when distributing recruitment materials
- Maintaining recruitment activity logs
- Maintaining regular communication with the research team

Pay: $25/hour ($24/hour + 4% vacation pay)

Word Period:

- September 7 to approximately October 17, 2021:
 - Full- or part-time hours; day, evening, and weekend shifts available
 - 20 to 35 hours per week
- Mandatory, paid, 4-hour online training session on 1 day between September 1 to 3

Qualifications:

- Strong organizational skills
- Responsible and reliable
- Excellent communication and people skills
- Previous research experience is an asset

If you are interested, please submit your resume and unofficial school transcripts to Theresa Poon at cannabis.project@uwaterloo.ca by Wednesday, August 4, 2021. Please indicate your availability (full- or part-time hours; day, evening, and weekend shifts).